DAILY TRIBUNE.

Friday Morning .... May 8, 1857.

Republican Victory in Indianapolis.

The Republicans carried the city of Indianapolis on Wednesday the 6th inst., electing their Mayor, W. J. Wallace over N. B. Taylor, Dem., by 167 majority. The vote stood:

Wallace	1,687
Taylor	1,517
Republican Majority	167

The election was very warmly contested and a heavy vote polled. The pro-slavery party were confident of victory, but they most miserably failed. The success of our friends is most grateful and cheering.

Location of Normal University.

By the following telegraphic despatch, received last night, it will be seen that it has finally been determined to locate the proposed Normal University at Bloomington:

PEORIA, May 7.

EDITORS TRIBUNE:—Bloomington has been definitely fixed upon as the location of the Normal University. The subscription in that city amounted to one hundred and forty thousand dollars.

WILLIAM H. POWELL.

Our neighbors of Bloomington are doubtless duly rejoicing at the action of the committee, and they have certainly subscribed most liberally.

CITY ITEMS.

THE FORBES FORGERY.—This case has been set down for examination at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

REES's new map of Cook County can be had of the publishers, R. Blanchard, in sheet forms suitable for mailing.

THE CAMPBELLS.—This popular troupe of negro minstrels commence a series of concerts in our city, on next Monday evening.

THE NEW STATE PENITENTIARY.—The commissioners have decided on Joliet as the point of location for the new State Penitentiary authorized by the late Legislature.

STRANGERS GUIDE.—This useful little monthly, published by Messrs. Hall & Co., is now issued for May. It contains a great deal of valuable local information for both citizens and strangers, and should meet with a ready sale.

MR. AHNER'S CONCERT.—The attendance at Mr Ahner's benefit concert last evening was meagre.—Everything passed off pleasantly, however, and the audience seemed well satisfied with the entertainment. We have not space in this issue for a detailed notice of the performance.

DR. CHAPIN'S LECTURE.—On this evening Rev. Dr. Chapin, of New York, will deliver his lecture upon "Franklin; or the Practical man." Dr. Chapin is one of the ablest and most popular Lecturers of the day. The Lecture will be delivered in Metropolitan Hall.

NORTH'S NATIONAL THEATRE.—Mrs. T. S. Hamblin's benefit takes place this evening, and a most attractive bill is offered for the occasion, including Knowle's ever popular play of Love, in which Mrs. Hamblin is inimitable as the Countess. The farce of Mr. and Mrs. White will also be played, and between the pieces the sisters Henrade will appear in a new dance.

HUNT'S MAGAZINE.—McNally has just received Hunt's Merchant's Magazine for May. Among other articles of value, it contains one on Chicago, for 1856, which is quite readable. The leading article is entititled, "Finances and debts of the States of the Union." This issue is the best one we have seen for a year. Every business man should procure a copy.

LECTURES.—The introductory lecture to the course, by Dr. Weiting, will be given at Metropolitan Hall, on Monday evening, and it will be free to all. No man, certainly in the United States, has met with the success of Dr. Weiting. Whether this result can be attributed to the amusement or the instruction combined in his lectures, or to his splendid exhibition of paintings, models and manikins, we are unable to say. See the advertisement.

CHEAP COAL.—Dewey & Co., coal dealers, divide with C. A. Reno the honor of being the first to tumble down the price of Briar Hill coal, from $10 50 per ton, to $6 50. These dealers concluded that the public had been paying 40 cents a bushel about as long as human nature could stand it, and instead of coming down by degrees—fifty cents per week, or the like they boldly stepped forward and cut the dog's tail off close behind his ears—making but one job of it. Other dealers of course followed suit, as it was Hobson's choice with them, they had to come down to the summer solstice, gracefully and without growling.

ANOTHER BODY FOUND.—On Tuesday last the body of a man was found in the Lake in the vicinity of Ainsworth, Ind., and an inquest held. It is supposed to be the body of Robert Piste, one of the crew of the ill-fated David Smart. On one of the arms of the deceased was the figure of a female and the letters "R. P." done in India ink. There are two brothers of the deceased in the city one of whom is employed in a machine shop or a foundry in the West Division. By calling at the Coroner's office, in the Court House, at 10 o'clock this morning, the friends of the deceased can learn any particulars they may desire to know.

LAWYERS ATTENTION.—There will be a meeting of the "Chicago Law Institute," this (Friday) evening, at the Court Room in the Court House, at 7½ o'clock. All the members of the bar are requested to be present.

R. ANTHONY, Sec'y pro tem.

There is no other city in the Union half as large as Chicago, but has a law library. This city has none. It is about time there was one established. One of the objects of the "Law Institute" is to provide a good law library for the bar of Chicago.

"OUTRAGEOUS IMPOSITION."—Under this caption our paper of yesterday contained an item, relative to a woman's having been grossly overcharged at the Merchants Hotel. Mr. Moore, one of the proprietors, informs us that his partner, Mr. J. Lord, settled with the woman, and Mr. Lord states that she neither informed him of her circumstances or stated that she did not eat breakfast, and, also, that when the bill was paid, it was for two grown persons and two children. Mr. Lord denies that, under the circumstances, he is blameable in the matter.

The woman stated to us, to the Police officers and to others, that she was charged $4 for merely sitting in the parlor of the house with her three children, for some five or six hours. The public now have both sides of the story, and can believe which they please.

CHICAGO THEATRE—ANDERSON'S HAMLET.—Of all Shakespeare's tragedies we own to a preference for Hamlet. Not, if we may re-echo the words of the Bard himself to a construction of our own, that we regard Romeo less, but that we love Hamlet more. We have ever been wont to consider this play the very acme of true tragedy. In all the varying elements of character, deep and intense passion, stern revenge, biting sarcasm, poignant wit, noble generosity, melancholy foreboding and bitter sorrow and regret, Hamlet has, it is generally admitted, few, if any equals in Shakspeare, and certainly none out of the "volume of his brain." Apart from its great length, and other considerations, the peculiar construction of this play, requiring Hamlet's almost continual presence on the stage, renders the delineation of the principal character difficult and acutely trying, and we are therefore the more glad to notice the spendid triumph achieved by Mr. J. R. Anderson, the eminent tragedian, on Wednesday night. It was a triumph in every sense of the word; not a farcical, uproarous clapping of hands and stamping of feet, but a silent recognition of the merits and powerful acting which seemed to awe the dense crowd into silence, and to carry each soul through the shifting scenes before it.—From the fourth scene in the first act, at Elsinore, when the apparition of the steel-clad ghost appears to his disordered vision on the platform of the castle, to the horrible tableaux at the end of the fifth act, when the whole court are assembled in the regal Hall, and the dead bodies of Laertes, (Wright) the Queen Mother, (Knight) and Hamlet bear damning evidence of the King's guilt, the noble Prince's path is beset with trouble which only he himself, in the person of such an actor as Anderson could ever suffer to the satisfaction of an audience as intelligent as that which greeted him on Wednesday night.

Hamlet does not reveal himself till near the middle of the second scene, when the presence of more intelligence is immediately manifest as his manly form glides noiselessly across the stage to confront the ghost of his murdered father, but it is not until the opening scene of the third act, when he discovers himself to the audience, with those never to be forgotten words, coming like sweet, mournful music from his lips: "To be, or not to be, that is the question;" or still later, in the same scene, when raising his tall figure to its utmost height, with his hands over and arms raised to his dishevelled hair, and then thrust wildly before him, he bursts out in his frenzied madness, those bitter, hope-despairing words to Ophelia, (Miss Ellsworthy) "Get thee to a nunnery; farewell. To a nunnery go." Our scanty limits forbid us giving this fine actor the notice he deserves, and it is to be hoped that the management will gratify those who have not had an opportunity of seeing him in Hamlet, by again placing this play on the boards. We cannot omit to mention that several of the minor parts of the piece were exceedingly well filled, particularly Polonius (Bradley,) and the detested King, Claudius, (Riley.)

Mr. Wright, on the other hand, with all his good qualities is not well suited to the part of Laertes, and Messrs. Hall and Lamb, as grave-diggers, made a sorry mess of it—but that was perhaps for the best.

On this evening Mr. Anderson takes a benefit, which we hope may be a bumper. The plays are "Much Ado about Nothing," in which Mr. Anderson appears as Benedict; and the Farce of "Matrimony," Mr. Anderson as Delaval.

POLICE INTELLIGENCE.—The following cases were disposed of yesterday:

Frank Till was fined $5 for violating the bridge ordinance.

John Hickey was fined $2 for keeping a disorderly house.

Daniel Barney, a vagrant who has been obtaining meat, at the North Market for some time past, in the way of charity, was fined $20 and sent to the Bridewell to work out the fine.

A man named Richard Williams was held to bail in the sum of $500 for breaking open the trunk of Mrs. Rosana Dunn, who resides upon the corner of North Water and Clark streets, and stealing therefrom $16 in bills.

Daniel Costello, a lad, was sent to the Reform School for being a vagrant and pilfering small articles.

For being drunk, disorderly, etc., W. F. Hobinson, S. Reynolds, Ferdinand Hark and Elizabeth Elliot, were fined $2; William Day, John Cowley and M. Seiber $4 each; F. Marlow and William Ryan $5

DEDICATION OF ST. PAUL'S CHURCH.—Last evening the new St. Paul's Church (Universalist) corner of Wabash Avenue and Van Buren street, was dedicated to the service of the Most High. The sermon was preached by the Rev. E. H. Chapin, of New York. This is one of the finest church edifices in the city, and is an ornament to that portion of the city. It is built of Athens stone, in the gothic style, and will, when completed, be ornamented with a spire. The interior of the edifice is finished in oak, and the seats are pleasantly arranged and exceedingly comfortable. The ceiling is frescoed, producing a very cheerful effect. In the basement is a commodious lecture room, library, ante rooms &c., and the whole arrangement is convenient and tasteful. We shall not attempt, for the want of space, any criticism of the architecture of this structure or its interior decorations, but will simply say that it will be found one of the most comfortable and pleasant churches in the city. The cost of the building and ground is $90,000, and the Society deserves great credit for the successful accomplishment of their task under many trying difficulties. Rev. N. W. King is the pastor.

WONDERFUL YARN.—The Journal of yesterday publishds the following wonderful yarn:

COMPELLED TO DISGORGE.—A Jew watch pedlar, by the name of Ragensburgh, came to this city a few days since, and engaged board with Mr. Joseph Schlossmann, on Randolph street. He had in his possession about $600 worth of watches, which he brought here to trade. On Monday evening he went to his trunk to get them, but found that they were all gone. He at once communicated the fact to Capt. Yates, who, with his usual promptness, set officer Kaufmann upon the watch. Tuesday morning Kaufmann suspected from the movements of another boarder, by the name of Meyers, that he was the thief.

Two or three more officers were then put upon the trail, with instructions not to lose sight of him. The instructions were carried out to the very letter. An officer was at his side every moment. If he went out, the star was at his heels; if he went up to the bar to drink, the star was at his elbow; at night, at his meals, everywhere, was that star. He could not turn round, but that he saw it; he could not speak, but there was a listener; he could not ride, but that the star rode at his side and pulled the check rope at the same time he did.

This constant surveillance so worked upon him, that last night he returned the watches to the trunk and absconded.

A more thorough carried out plan of "spotting" has never been done in this city, and Capt. Yates and officer Kaufmann, who is one of the most vigilant officers in this city, are worthy of great credit for their successful performance.

Now, will our neighbor be kind enough to inform us how it happened, that under such "constant surveillance" the thief was enabled to return the watches without its being known to the "shadows" and then escape from under their very noses? We rather guess the facts of this case are so hugely embellished as to render their discovery rather difficult. In view of the result, this "plan of spotting" has never been excelled in this or any other city.

GOOD PAY AND STEADY WORKMEN.—The Tribune news-room employs ten regular compositors.—With two exceptions the same hands have stood at their cases for sixteen months; one of those who left, threw up his "sit" to take the foremanship of the Times; the other, after making a comfortable "pile," retired from type sticking and went to Kansas to engage in the lumber business. Their places were filled by two old "subs." According to printers rules, if a regular hand quits his case, the oldest "sub" is entitled to fill the vacancy—unless the foreman or publisher objects to him.

We think no other office in Chicago can show a set of compositors who have retained their situations so permanently, nor is there one which has a more steady and sober set of hands. Not one of our compositors so far as we know, is addicted to inebriation, gambling or licentiousness. And this is saying a good deal when the careless, roving dissolute habits of so many journeymen printers, are taken into consideration. An indisputable evidence of the steadiness of the Tribune compositors is seen in the amount of each one's wages. Take the year ending May 2d, 1857, the lowest bill is $700, and the highest $1,050. The range of regular earnings is from $14 to $25 per week, and averages about $17 to each hand. The foreman is paid $20 per week, or $1,040 per year.

During the past year the Tribune has paid out in cash not far from ten thousand dollars to its "news room" hands. Every Saturday the bill for the week is paid over to the foreman, his own wages included, and he settles with his men. This simplifies accounts and lightens the labors of the book keeper, as a simple entry on his cash book shows the whole transaction, so far as the office is concerned. The Tribune is a cash paying establishment, and keeps no individual accounts with its employees. Every man and boy is cashed off each Saturday, by the foreman under which he works. The receipts of the Tribune justifies this prompt, independent course, and one of the consequence is that it can always command the services of the best workmen, and retain them year in and year out. It pay the highest rates of wages, in cash, and expects the services of reliable workmen. The Tribune pays out weekly, for all departments, about $1,000; but its business is equal to its disbursement, with a margin over, for those who conduct its affairs.

WE would call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Brown & Rathbun's new Embroidery store.

SALE OF PEWS.—The pews in St. Paul's Church, (Universalist,) will be offered for sale this day, at 10 o'clock A. M. The sale will take place at the Church, and will be conducted by James A. Marshall, Esq. By order of the Trustees.

TO PLUMBERS—HOSE, HOSE! HOSE!—[illegible] now prepared to furnish all sizes of Rubber H[illegible] for hydrant and conducting purposes. Our Hose is warranted to keep pliable at all seasons of the year.—Call at 47 La Salle street.

my7-d3t CHAS. L. NOBLE, Agent.

ESTRAY.—A small brown pony, with iron grey face, strayed from the owner, near Union Park, on Monday, the 4th inst. The pony has one white hind foot, and had a rope tied up around his neck when he left. Whoever will return him to the Police Station, No. 3, West Division, will be liberally rewarded.

DUFF'S MERCANTILE COLLEGE, PHILO HALL, THIRD ST., PITTSBURGH.—The universal acceptance of Duff's system of Bookkeeping as a standard work upon accounts, attests the importance attached to his labors as a teacher. The largest impression yet published of this valuable work, was sold by the publishers, Harper & Brothers, New York, in two months. A diploma, signed by such a favorite author, is, of itself, an object of interest, and the strongest recommendation a young man can present.—Pittsburgh Gazette.

THE public are notified that J. Tiffany of New York, will lecture at Light Guard Hall on Sunday morning, at 10½ o'clock; afternoon at 3, and evening 7½ o'clock, on the subject of spiritual intercourse, and all persons are invited to attend, and especially those Editors who think no sane man would believe that spirits do communicate, are invited to be present and test Mr. Tiffany's sanity.

FRECKLES.—Of all the effects that exposure of the skin to the air or sun produces, the most disagreeable is called freckles, or tan. If spread over the entire surface of the parts exposed, it is called tan; if scattered at intervals, freckles. The finest skins are most subject to them. The Kalliston, prepared by Joseph Burnett & Co., Boston, contains a peculiar emulsive property which will remove these disagreeable stains. It is at the same time perfectly harmless, allays a tendency to inflammation, and renders the complexion clear and beautiful.—Boston Herald.

For sale by all dealers, at 50c. and 1.00 per bottle. See advertisement in another column.

LAND WARRANTS.—The Land Office at Sioux City, Iowa, will be open for entering Land Warrants, on the 18th day of May, and those wishing can locate by sending warrants to W. Van O'Linda, Esq., care of Col. Yeoman, Receiver at Sioux City; or they may call on L. F. Bingham, Esq., 66 Randolph street. Mr. Van O'Linda, who is well known to the business men of this city, has commenced the business, and his acquaintance with the Receiver will enable him to make choice judiciously.

MERCHANTS HOTEL, CHICAGO.—This may certify that during this and several other visits to Chicago, I have, from preference, made the Merchants Hotel of Chicago my stopping place, as also have several of my friends and acquaintances done the same, and we can, and do most cheerfully, recommend it for its good fare, obliging and attentive proprietors, and the prompt attention always manifested for the comfort of their guests, and, withal, their very reasonable charges.

ASTHMA.—JONAS WHITCOMB'S REMEDY, prepared from a German recipe, obtained by the late Jonas Whitcomb, in Europe. It is well known to have alleviated this disorder in his case, when all other appliances of medical skill had been abandoned by him in despair. In no case of purely Asthmatic character, has it failed to give immediate relief, and it has effected many permanent cures. Joseph Burnett & Co., Boston, Proprietors. For sale by J. H. Reed & Co. and Gale & Bro., Chicago, and by druggists generally, at $1 per bottle.

TWO KINDS OF FLAME.—At the very urgent request of the young lady whose name is appended to it, we publish the following communication:

Editor Tribune—DEAR SIR: As you have volunteered in publishing articles in your paper against me and my father's family, will you please give the following an insertion:

The first operation with regard to my sister is untrue. She was reading when we came in, and nothing was said by her until Johnson said that if he could read as well as she did, he would read for the public; and if he could not read better he would not read at all. She told him he was a pretty man to talk to her in that way. He then said if he was not better than the company that she went with, he would go out and cut his head off. Sister replied, that he had better go. Upon this, he rose from his chair and raised his hand, which I was surprised to see him do, and taking hold of his arm told them they had better stop. Sister then told him he must stop his noise and retire or leave the house, or she should call her mother. Johnson said that if she stayed under the roof he should not. He paid his board and left the house. I suppose that he was offended because I would not have sister retire that he might have an opportunity of seeing me alone. He requested me to do so, but I refused, as I had also refused his company that evening ere we came in. Witnessing the passion he got into without cause my mind was in part made up; he called, after leaving as a boarder, until I was fully convinced, when I informed him that I did not wish his visit to be repeated, as his disposition was such that I could never have any connection with him. How so offended, but I will not repeat what he said; I will only add that he must be careful hereafter. Your statement about my meeting him stealthily is also untrue. He was never forbid my father's house by any of the family, unless it was by myself; I have refused to see him except in the light of a friend. Your statement that it was a supposition that he threw the Daguerreotype is also of the same shade, as he acknowledged it of his own accord and was seen at the gate soon after it struck the door. Your supposition as to any conspiracy is also a mistake. No member of my father's family ever offered a remark that I should not marry him if I chose; and as I consider myself able to judge and act for myself, yet I feel under obligations to my parents for advice which I have received, as also from others not at all connected with the family; and from my own conviction I have made up my mind and nothing will change it. I had expected my daguerreotype sent home, as Mr. Johnson had said he would do so; but did not expect it in so shattered a condition. I would further add that I do not wish to be followed to and from the theater any more.

M. PAYNE.

N. B.—Here is a copy of a letter which I received April 1st:

CHICAGO, April 1, 1857.

DEAR MARY:—I am quite unwell to-day. I went to work this morning, but my head felt so bad, I had to return home. I feel very much as I did last fall, without any kind voice to cheer me. Life is now bitter indeed; it cannot, it will not last long so. It would be a kind act to me if heaven would call me hence, for I am indeed miserable. Oh, Mary, what have I done to be thus deserted.

Dear M., if I cannot see thy sweet face soon, you will be forever too late to speak a kind word to one whose heart is thine FOREVER. S. H.

SALVATION OFFERED.—We are pleased to hear that Dr. Thomas Tilton will remain in Chicago a few weeks longer, for the purpose of supplying the consumptive, and asthmatic as well as those suffering with cough, cold, nervous debility, bronchitis, etc., with his father-in-law's, (old Dr. H. James) extract of Cannabis Indica. He came here at the solicitation of many philanthropists, and although his stay has been brief, it has been signalized by gigantic and blessed results. He has been the means, through the medicine specified, of curing more consumption here, in that short time, than was cured for years previous. Indeed, until he came here a cured case of consumption was never heard of in the State. As a specimen of what the wonderful Cannabis Indica will do, we will state that no matter how severe a fresh cold may be, it will remove all traces thereof in forty-eight hours. By-the-way this great preparation is the only one known in medicine that exhilarates, yet has no reactionary power. Go and see Dr. Tilton, he is still at room 11, Massasoit House, opposite the Mammoth depot. Dr. Tilton has all his father-in-law's great and unique medicines, and can cure consumption, asthma, bronchitis, nervous debility, coughs, colds, and various other dangerous and obstinate afflictions with comparative ease. If you are curious to ascertain the exact condition of your lungs, let him apply the Spiro-Dynamter. In one moment you will have received the requisite information. Dr. Tilton will remain in Chicago until the 1st of July.

By addressing Dr. Tilton a note through the Chicago Post Office, inclosing four postage stamps, (12 cents) a receipt will be sent in return free of charge to any part of the Union. He will remain until the 1st of July.

tf. DR. TILTON, Massasoit House.

New York News.

NEW YORK, May 7.

The buildings at Sequin's Point, Staten Island recently purchased for quarantine, were burned to the ground last night. The work of an incendiary. Loss $120,000.

Canal Breaks.

BUFFALO, May 7.

There are rumors of serious breaks in the middle division of the Erie Canal. The Seneca river aqueduct is said to have given out, also the lesser one near Port Byron.

The news is not authenticated and the department has no information on the subject. Both aqueducts are known to be in eminent danger. These will prove a serious detriment to canal navigation.

Some small breaks on the Western division caused by the surface water, will retard navigation fully one week.

The international bridge bill has been read the second time in the Canadian Parliament, and referred to committee of the whole.

The Burdell Murder.

NEW YORK, May 7th.

The prosecution in the Burdell murder case, closed their evidence against Mrs. Cunningham, this afternoon, whereupon Mr. Dean moved that the case be dismissed, unless the District Attorney would call as witnesses, Eckle, Snodgrass, Helen and Augusta Cunningham. Court refused the motion. Mr. Dean then moved a dismissal of the case on the ground that the court was not properly constituted. The Court would not entertain the motion. A recess was then taken.

The Burdell Murder case opened for defense after the recess. Dr. Carnochan's evidence stated his theory of the whole affair was committed by a right handed person. Two other witnesses were examined, whose testimony was wholly with reference to the alleged marriage.

☞ The New St. Paul arrived last Monday morning. She is a splendid packet, and we are told that the Captain and Clerk know how to make their passengers perfectly at home. The officers are gentlemen every inch of them. She makes regular five day trips, between St. Louis and this place. She leaves here again for St. Louis next Saturday.—Peru Com.

RUNNING THE COMET INTO THE GROUND.—Sulgrove, of the Indianapolis Journal, advances a new and very striking theory of the "aurora borealis," viz: that a comet has at some time bit the earth at the Northern pole, and run into Symme's Hole, leaving its tail striking out, the flapping of which makes auroral light. Sulgrove deserves at once to be created an honorary member of all the scientific institutes in the world, not omitting the Pickwick club.

THE SPRING WHEAT.—We are gratified to learn from many of our farmer friends who were in town on Saturday, that the spring wheat gives promise of a good crop. It was apprehended that the recent cold weather had materially injured it; but such is not the case. The warm rains of last week, and the bright sunshine since, are very encouraging to the farmer.—Springfield Journal 4th.

DAILY TRIBUNE.

No. 53 CLARK STREET.

CITY OF CHICAGO.

Friday Morning..................May 8, 1857.

American Fleet in China.

Our Government will not neglect our interests in China. Our naval force in the Chinese waters, now consisting of a steam frigate and two sloops, having an aggregate of 55 guns, is to be reinforced by the steam frigates Minnesota and Mississippi, and the sloop-of-war Germantown, with a total of 72 guns, making a total of 127 guns, an extraordinary armament for that quarter.

THE VALUE OF A CLERGYMAN IN OREGON.—Intelligence from Oregon Territory states that Father Pandosy, a Catholic Missionary, was taken prisoner by Skloom, an Indian Chief, who demanded for his ransom two white women and two hundred sacks of flour.

Death of Chief Justice Wilson.

Judge WILLIAM WILSON died at his residence in White county on the 29th ult., in about the 69th year of his life. Judge WILSON was one of the early pioneers of Illinois, and was Chief Justice of the Supreme Court from 1819 to 1849, when the new Constitution was adopted. This position he filled with marked ability, as the reports of that court give ample testimony. In all his relations, social and official, he was a most estimable man, and universally respected.

Agricultural College.

The State of Michigan has established a College of Agriculture, on a farm of seven hundred fertile acres, near the city of Lancing, where the State Capitol is located. Joseph R. Williams, late editor of the Toledo Blade, is President. It has an endowment of $56,000 the proceeds of the Salt Spring lands originally donate to the Territory of Michigan by the Federal Government. The Legislature has appropriated $20,000 per annum for two years to the support of the College. There are already accommodations for eighty students. No charge is now charged for tuition, but each student is required to work three hours per day, for which he is paid. This we believe will be the first State Agricultural College actually in operation in America, but Pennsylvania and our own State are preparing to follow. The Michigan College will be dedicated on the 13th instant.

Air Line to St. Paul.

The shortest and best route for a railroad between Chicago and St. Paul that can possibly be built, is by way of Janesville, and Madison to La Crosse; thence up the Mississippi river, to St. Paul. A glance at a good map will show that this route is an air line, the whole distance, and consequently there can never be a shorter route. Over such a road, when made, would pour a very large portion of the travel of the whole territory, going east. That such a road will soon be built is a certainty. It is completed from this city to Madison already, and in a short time will penetrate to La Crosse. The people of Minnesota are taking steps to build their portion of the road from St. Paul down the Mississippi Valley to La Crosse. Milwaukee has been flattering herself that she would seize and control the rich trade of Minnesota, but that ambition cannot be gratified.

☞ We desire no verbal controversy with the Times in regard to the religious opinions of Senator DOUGLAS. Whether he has any religious belief we know not, nor do we much care—as that is his own affair, not ours. But we are unwilling that his satellite should convert what was manifestly intended to be a Pro-slavery donation, into one for the cause of "pure and undefiled religion."

The long and reiterated diatribe of the Times in regard to the peculiar views of the "Methodist Church South," is purely demagoguical and impertinent, and is put in as a special dodge to avoid the point in dispute.

Will the Times be so good as to publish the extract from the Richmond Advocate, and the Alabama True Union, which contain the appeal to Pro-slavery people, in behalf of a purely Pro-slavery object, with the names of the prominent fire-eating donors, and specially commending DOUGLAS as the friend of the South, (i. e. of Slavery,) and holding him up as a pattern for all true negro-breeders to emulate? Why has the Times suppressed the extract? Its frothy declamation will avail nothing unless it lets its readers know what it is babbling about.

St. Paul to Chicago by Railroad.

The Legislature of Minnesota is holding an extra session to dispose of the grants of land ceded to the territory for Railroad purposes. The town is full of land sharks and speculators.

Some Milwaukee individual is trying to persuade the people of St. Paul that the only route to the East is via La Crosse and Milwaukee, and that the latter place is the greatest city between St. Paul and New York. He also attempts to figure out that the nearest route to the village of Chicago is by way of the city of Milwaukee. His statement is as follows:

From St. Paul to Chicago, via Prairie du Chien, Madison and Janesville	536 Miles.
" St. Paul to Chicago, via La Crosse R. R.	412
Difference in favor of La Crosse Railroad, via Milwaukee	124

He enters into other elaborate calculations to prove that Milwaukee via La Crosse is nearer to every where than by any other route. The editor of the St. Paul Minnesotian thus pitches into and smashes his crockery.

We publish the following communication not because we endorse a single argument or point in it, but because it comes from a responsible source; and we have no desire to be charged with unfairness by those who widely differ with us on railroad matters, as does the writer of this. His figures are as "wild as hawks," and hugely misrepresent the facts in order to prove the feasibility of his route.

Let any man take the map, and two minutes' examination will prove that the shortest and most feasible route from St. Paul to Chicago is directly by the Valley of the Mississippi to La Crescent and La Crosse, thence by Madison to Chicago. Sixty miles by this route are saved, over our correspondent's much boasted road through Wisconsin to Milwaukee—a city where St. Paul has no trade, nor never will have, so long as the great city of Illinois stands where she does.

The Valley road to La Crescent is not advocated by us, or any one else, because it follows the Mississippi, but because the general course of the Mississippi happens to be, as far as the point named, in almost an air line towards Chicago. When this road is once completed, it will be the great thoroughfare between the two points. Our correspondent would have our grants of lands so disposed of as to give us only eighteen miles of road in Minnesota out of St. Paul in the direction of Chicago, while we are for having the whole distance from here to La Crosse, some hundred and eighty miles, constructed within our own borders. Rest assured Mr. "M," this selling out to Wisconsin will not suit our people. The interests of the river towns in Minnesota will prove too strong in the Legislature for your scheme. At least we hope so.

DANIEL WEBSTER'S EGOTISM.—A good story is related in the Olean Advertiser of George W. Canfield, a "right smart chance" of a lawyer, who does business somewhere in the wilds of Cattaraugus county. The story runs as follows:

"I went down to New York several years ago," as he used to say with a dignified exultation, "and put up at the Astor House. While I was there, Daniel Webster happened to come to town, and also put up at the Astor. Seeing my name on the register, he immediately sent up his card and soon after called at my room. He wanted to form a co-partnership with me in the legal profession and stick out a shingle right there in the city. We talked the matter over in a general way, with a view to a grand swing into the 'criminal practice,' and I thinking that it was a middling fair chance to arrange the details of the partnership, the whole thing was suddenly knocked into a cocked hat. I wanted him to do the office business, and take half the proceeds, and I would do all the spouting. Old Dan wouldn't agree to do the office business, and let me do the spouting. We had some words in regard to this matter, and I finally told him that I wouldn't play second fiddle to any such man as Daniel Webster—I'd see him d——d first! He might have made property, and become a pretty fair criminal lawyer, if he hadn't been such an egotistical old cuss."

A NATIONAL DEMOCRAT.—A Mr. A. W. KING writes to the Post Master General, complaining that the Post Master at Westport, Missouri, delivers his letters to one "H. Clay Pate, thereby enabling said Pate to steal money, which he has frequently done."

This "H. Clay Pate" is a pink of chivalry, a Border Ruffian all over, and the pet "Kansas correspondent" of the St. Louis Republican.—We wait in trembling suspense for Capt. Clay Pate's response to this delicate insinuation against his professional honor.

This Pate is a boisterous "National Democrat," and signalized himself during the Kansas war, in stealing horses and other property from Free State men. He showed the white feather at the battle of "Black Jack" where he was taken prisoner. He was elected by the [illegible] Mayor of Westport, the other day.

☞ The St. Paul papers announce the arrival there of [illegible] of the Times, and state that he will remain there during the session of the Legislature, [illegible]

"Who are the Ruffians?"

If the servile knave, signing himself Truth, in yesterday's Times will read over again the letter of our Special Kansas Correspondent he will observe—1st. That when Stanton come to Lawrence to harrangue the people, he had the cool audacity to tell them that he would cram the enactments of the Missouri invaders down their throats, using the U. S. troops as a ramrod for that purpose. 2d. That he would squeeze taxes out of them to support the usurping tyrants who had robbed the people of their dearest rights, by sheer brute force, and committed upon them theft, arson and murder. 3d. He gave them to understand that if previous Governors had "chastised them with whips, he would chastise them with scorpions"—that his "little finger would be thicker than his predecessor's loins."

When thus threatened their Yankee blood could forbear no longer and the whole assembly shouted never, never, never, would they submit to such tyranny and wrong! and they defied him to do his worst.

When he plead that he was unarmed, and pretended that his life was in danger, the people in derision cried, bah! humbug! as not a soul in the whole audience dreamed of employing personal violence. He was just as safe in their hands as in the midst of his own family, and far safer than when among his human chattles in Tennessee. It was natural that the brave and gallant people of Lawrence would feel indignant at the cowardly aspersion his remark conveyed, and should resent the insult by instantly repudiating the idea. This sprig of Chivalry mistook his auditors when he commenced showing off his plantation manners among them, and cracking his slave whip over their heads. He, like most of his tribe, supposed that by giving his orders in supercillious nigger-driving style, the "d——d Abolitionists" would cower and tremble, and whimper, "yes sah, we'll do as you order, massey." But he was awakened from his delusion. The knife of the old man was emblematical of the character of the reception this fellow, dressed up in a little brief authority, would encounter when he came with his armed band to subjugate his hearers. It would have been well for this upstart, who is only Governor's clerk, and is playing Executive until his principal arrives, not to have put on such big airs, and talk about marching U. S. troops to shoot down the citizens of Kansas for not obeying the edicts of invaders and robbers—edicts which Gen. Cass and Senator Weller pronounced in the Senate chamber to be not only cruel and disgraceful but unconstitutional.

Buying out Pro-Slavery towns in Kansas.

The Free State capitalists in Kansas have hit on an excellent method of abating a Pro-Slavery town as a nuisance. They buy it up, and clean off all the Border ruffians.

Doniphan was considered, until quite recently, a strong-hold of pro-slaveryism; but the free state men have taken it. It surrendered without firing a gun. Gen. Lane, with some friends, visited that city a few days since, paid over the gold, took Doniphan, and put it in his pocket. The price was $35,000.

Delaware City, another border ruffian head-quarters, has also capitulated.

A gentleman writes as follows:

"Delaware—with one of the best landings on the Missouri—much better than Leavenworth—a rock shore, an excellent site, from five to ten miles nearer Lawrence than any other river town—was, at an early date, taken possession of by the citizens of Platte City, Mo., who were determined to make it a pro-slavery city, and every preparation was made to exclude free state men from its limits. But, as with Lecompton, pro-slaveryism could make nothing of Delaware City. No business was done there; steamboats from St. Louis and other points, refused to stop at its levee. Shares of ten lots sold for less than fifty dollars, if sold at all; and if a passenger on one of the steamers should have asked the officers about Delaware City, he would have received the answer that "it was dead as hay."

A few weeks since, some gentlemen from Lawrence, on their way from this city to Leavenworth, passed through Delaware City, and were favorably impressed with the site, its central position, the landing, and other advantages of the place. They determined to buy the town; and soon the pro-slavery city, the head-quarters of the South Carolina regiment at one time, passed into the possession of a Lawrence company. As soon as the fact became public, real estate in the vicinity found a market at two hundred per cent. more than was asked for it before the purchase of the city. The free state proprietors commenced operations immediately to grade the levee streets, and the building of good roads to Lawrence and other points, the erection of buildings, &c., &c., and shares containing ten lots each, have since sold for $500. Business is brisk. Every steamer stops to land passengers and freight, and Delaware City is no longer "dead as hay," but an active, enterprising business place, in striking contrast with what it was less than five weeks ago."

Lecompton is the grand head-quarters and capital of the usurpers. It was laid out with a great flourish of trumpets two years ago. Sheriff Jones boasted "that Lecompton was emphatically a pro-slavery town or city, "and he'd be d—d if a free state man should hold property there, for it was destined to be the greatest city in the territory, and he wanted to show the abolitionists what pro-slaveryism could do." The general government has done all it can to aid Lecompton, by the location of the land office, generally considered an important item in new towns; and the bogus legislature made it the capital, the head-quarters of the territorial executive and his assistants, the county seat, and the place of holding the first district court. Nearly every citizen received a commission either to act as deputy U. S. marshal, sheriff, or other offices, whereby they could have their hands in Uncle Sam's treasury—in fact, living on government pap. Notwithstanding all these auxiliaries, usually considered important, Lecompton has progressed but little for the last two years. The only business that seems to flourish is the whisky trade. I am credibly informed that the last steamer for Lawrence landed at the levee fifty barrels of the "ardent," destined for that town, in which every house or shanty contains a bar. Lots in Lecompton sell at a very low price, if sold at all; but little building going on, while the free state towns are progressing rapidly. Jones and company have shown us what pro-slaveryism could do in the way of building cities, and Lecompton stands to-day about as it did two years ago, to remain so until free state men take hold of it."

Later from the Indian War.

FORT DES MOINES, APRIL 29, 1857.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT:—The committee of information, and the bearers of the "munitions of war," have returned from Fort Dodge, and from them I learn that the panic north of this has proven ludicrous as it was general.

The party going up met dozens of families, hurrying to places of general rendezvous and resistance, and found houses deserted along the whole line of the road.

At Fort Dodge, they found churches, stables, tents, everything filled with the terrified populace from the surrounding country, but found no "injuns" or any reliable information that any had been seen within fifty miles of there.

The panic seems to have arisen from the delay of the party sent to bury the dead near Spirit Lake, who had experienced many difficulties from snow and disagreeable weather, and who were out some week or ten days longer than had been supposed necessary.

A party started to see what detained them, and yet another party followed. By accident the two latter came in sight of each other, too far off to distinguish their "colors," and becoming greatly alarmed, started for the fort by different routes, each panic stricken and panic spreading.

The result is as before stated, and it will be weeks before the excitement is fully allayed.—Many yet believe that Webster City is burned, such having been a current rumor. Des Moines will, it is hoped, rest peaceably to-night, having been kept awake for several nights by the "sound of the fife and the drum." There is no doubt, however, but there have been serious depredations committed in this State and Southern Minnesota within the last few weeks.

There is now so little provision in the country north, either for stock or man, that a panic of this kind is really quite a calamity, as no one district is able to furnish adequate supplies for the surrounding country.

LIBEL SUITS.—Three or four libel suits have just been commenced against S. D. Carpenter of the Wisconsin Patriot, Madison, by N. H. Van Slyke, one of the owners and officers of the Dane County Bank. Carpenter says Van Slyke has got his damages up to $25,000. Why he was foolish enough to stop with that little amount of change, we can't see. Why didn't he put his damages up to $100,000. He would be just as likely to get them. We predict that the whole bill of damages which he will get, will amount to—fifty cents! Not more.

A GERMAN made this reply to the bigoted attack of a native American:

"The gentleman taunts me with not having been in the country as long as he has. Let me tell the gentleman that my only excuse is that I am an American from choice, while he is one by necessity. If there is any difference between us, it is that I came into this country with my trousers on, while the gentleman came into it naked."

We deny that relief given to starving slave owners is an aid to the prolongation of slavery.—Times.

What does our neighbor think of aid to starving slaves? And yet under Douglas law in this State, the man who feeds one is subject to the direst of pains and penalties.—Journal.

☞ There is so much truth in the following criticisms of the Philadelphia Gazette, that we consider it worth the space, and hope the reader will run his or her eye over it:

SHAMS.

This is emphatically the age of cheap finery. We are all running away after appearances. Instead of striving to obtain the best, we are content with the nearest cheap imitation of it. We have abandoned realities, and are grasping at their shadows. We say, what is the use of paying a great price for a sterling article, when we can get something that looks just like it for a little one? So, we take the sham and reject the genuine, and then pat ourselves on the back for our shrewdness and economy. We have got the glitter; who cares for the gold? The old proverb is musty and behind the age. We have run so far ahead of its fogyism in our fast way of doing things, as to have discovered that it is the glitter which makes the value of the medal, and not the solidity and purity of the gold.

We build houses with fine brown stone fronts made of brick, and covered with painted and sanded plaster, marked off into sham blocks; we enter them through oaken or walnut doors made of grained pine, and pass through vestibules floored with marble mosaic made of baked clay, and sit down on veneered sofas before scagliola marble chimney pieces and mantles made of enameled iron. Over such mantles we place mirrors in gilt frames, enriched with elaborate carving made of compositions pressed in moulds and stuck on with glue. In one recess we hang hundred dollar water-color drawings, that is to say, printed imitations which cost five—and in another, handsome book cases with mahogany faces and pine bodies, filling the lower shelves with books and the upper with richly bound-blocks of wood, of assorted sizes.

Our daughters wear expensive point lace adornments, (we do not know their names nor do we know much about point lace, except that it is some sort of net work of fabulous cost), made of some more economical material, and washed in some way which is a profound secret, so as to give them the yellowish tint supposed to mark the genuine article. They wear Canton crape shawls which John Chinaman never saw, and Cashmere shawls manufactured at Paisley, and India silks that never passed the Equator, and furs which would astonish the animals whose names they bear, if they could see them. When they (the daughters, that is,) are married, we give grand wedings, displaying tables filled with extravagantly expensive bridal gifts; sets of gold and silver spoons, forks, fruit knives, tea services, necklaces, bracelets, &c.; touching tributes of affection from dear friends who are on our visiting list, and have been invited to the ceremony; and which, after the parade is over, are carefully packed up and—returned to the jeweler from whom we hired them. [This sham is going a little out of fashion since some indiscrete persons exposed it.] But they still wear sham flowers in their bonnets—that is in the little straw or velvet caps they use to cover their back hair when in the street—and sham braids of hair on their heads in front of the aforesaid bonnets.

We scan the performers at the opera through lorgnettes, hired at twenty-five cents a night, with a deposit for their safe return, as nonchalantly as if they belonged to us. We ride about in carriages hired by the year, coachman with velvet hatband, big buckle, and large caped coat included, all got up in the most elaborate style. We build churches with stone fronts and brick sides, decorated on the outside with carved stone brackets and cornices, made of painted wood or clay, and on the inside with wall paper panels, and painted recesses, and pilasters, and mouldings, half of whose shadows always fall the wrong way by daylight, and by gas light becomes "confusion worse confounded." We stick all manner of plaster gimcrackery over the walls and ceiling. We paint a deep alcove behind the pulpit, and then neutralize the effect by putting a sofa against the wall where it is painted, so that when the preacher sits down he has the contradictory appearance of resting his head against a wall, which is supposed to be ten feet in his rear, and maintaining all the while his upright position. It confuses our ideas of proportion and perspective dreadfully. We show the most laudable alacrity in assisting all benevolent enterprises, and get ourselves called to preside at meetings held to organize them, with the greatest enthusiasm.—We rise with overflowing hearts to make a few unpremeditated remarks, got up by rote the day before; head subscriptions with liberal sums, which we are not to be called for, in order to induce somebody else to subscribe a similar sum, which is to be called for, and furnish the reporters of the morning papers with a copy of our speech, together with the proceedings of the meeting and the names of the officers.

We turn up our eyes with edifying conscientiousness at the idea of shaving ten per cent. from a promissory note, and turn them down again complacently, and prick up our ears at the offer of a ground rent or mortgage at the same discount; because "you see, that is a different thing; it is a—it is—that is, you know—there is a difference—when you take real estate security, you—a-a a—it is—so, you see—a-a—" to be sure; not a doubt of it; nothing could be clearer.

Then, we write elaborate art-criticisms, profusely illustrated (by the aid of a Glossary) with learned technicalities, such as breadth, tone, warmth, chiaro-scuro, perspective, lights, touch, foreground, middle distance, atmospheric effects, interspersed with a great deal of cant about handling, style, execution, composition, idealism, lovely bits of distance, &c., of the meaning of all which we have as accurate a perception as school-boys, with imperfectly developed mathematical organs, have of what the dreaded Pons Asinorum is all about when they have got through saying it "off the book."

We get up a reputation as litterateurs, with regard to books, upon the advice of Dean Swift—to a friend, with regard to the members of the English Peerage—"learn their names, and then brag of their acquaintance;" and we descant upon their merits, and discourse dreary platitudes concerning their want of plot, their lack of originality, their inartistic denouncement, or, on the other hand, of their "independent noble tone," their "free, untrameled expression of thought," their "entrancing pictures of the beautiful," the "truthful delineation of this writer's style," (we copy this last, verbatim, from a newspaper criticism; which is a "truthful delineation" of a "style?") with a gravity and profundity that almost delude ourselves into the idea that we are talking sense.

There is a host, besides, which we have neither time nor space to enumerate. Altogether, when we think how little of anything genuine we see or hear—of how few things we can say "this is itself and isn't something else"—of how we are constantly trying to throw dust in our neighbor's eyes, conscious, all the while, that they are trying the same thing on us, and the wonder is that we can look each other in the face without laughing.

Business—What is It?

"What do you call business?" inquires one of the characters in the new play by Dumas. What do I call business? The simplest thing in life—other people's money." The play is denounced by some of the new York critics as intolerably dull. But the above is certainly a sharp specimen of sarcasm; and, if the present temper of France is properly represented, it is well deserved. The Parisians have run mad in speculation, and, if we may credit the newspapers, actually traffic in their drawing rooms in objects of vertu. If a gentleman or lady has found anything particularly old and queer, and useless, and, therefore, like the autograph of some hangman, especially desirable, they are as ready to sell it as a Circassian is to sell his sons and daughters. The passion for traffic has invaded even the boudoirs, and the aim of business is—other people's money. Faro, billiards, the card-table, all become, under this definition, legitimate business centers. The largest amount of money for the least return, or no return at all, is the desideratum.

But to feather yourself at another's expense, and turn out the plucked pigeon to shiver, freeze, and die, is not the true idea of business. In a legitimate transaction both parties are gainers, and mutually benefit each other. Business is the exchange of the superfluity of one man, or one nation or community, for that of another; the surplus in each case being converted into a useful commodity or necessary. The parties readily repeat negotiations by which both are benefitted. They are made friends by traffic, or if friendly, become more so. Honorable trade is one of the best bonds of amity, an agent of civilization, and a promoter of Christianity. Mere heartless speculation, stock gambling, the raising of the wind, imparting a fictitious value to bubbles, or depreciating stocks and commodities, that the owner may be compelled to sell at a loss, monopoly, forestalling, and all such sharp practices—if dignified with the name of business—are bad business, to say the best of them. They minister to no real prosperity. They create or increase no wealth, but cause a part of the world to be impoverished or plundered to enrich the rest. Such operations are sure to be followed by distress and embarrassment, greater or less, as the lust of gain is more or less an epidemic. They seem to be the bane and curse of new settlements; and while they may give a fictitious prosperity, inevitably retard the substantial growth of the city or region in which they obtain. Wisdom comes afterward, but is purchased at the bitter cost, it may be the ruin, of not a few of the pioneers.—Philadelphia American.

Col. Benton—Life of Jackson.

Col. Benton, in addition to his abridgment of the "debates," has also in contemplation the continuation of his "Thirty Years' View," so as to bring it up to the present time. He moreover has been urgently solicited by his publishers to undertake the work of writing a popular life of Jackson. This is a thing the country needs. There is no life of the great hero of true democracy, save that which is written in the upheavings of the country, from day-to-day, against misrule, and against aristocratic tendencies. Such a work is a necessity of the times; and if he, who was the stay of Jackson in his administration, should undertake it, and labor at it, and complete it, the country would owe him a great debt of gratitude. To do justice to the subject it would be necessary that he should revive old associations; that he should throw himself back into the past; that he should return to his native State, and there foregather with those who treasure the traditions of the great man, and thus bring forth his life fresh from the mint of private love. Such a work would be the noblest task that even Col. Benton could devote his remaining days to accomplish, and we trust that he will be spared to do justice to the theme.—St. Louis Democrat.

RESPITE OF INGRAHAM, THE MURDERER.—The [illegible]—Rock Island Argus, [illegible]

Annual Statement.

OF BIBLE SOCIETY OPERATIONS IN ILLINOIS, FOR THE YEAR ENDING MARCH 15TH, 1857.

The present condition of the Bible Cause in Illinois and the result of operations during the past year are as follows:

The same plan has been pursued as in the previous years. Each county with one exception has an Auxiliary Bible Society. Most of the counties are now covered with Branch Societies and we expect that all will be during the coming year.

The number of new branch societies formed is not far from 200 making the entire number of branches about 900, and the entire number of Societies including the auxiliaries, about 1,000.

Only 6 or 8 of the 900 branches organized in the State during the past 10 years, have ceased to exist.

There are about 1,000 Bible Depositories in the State from which books have been issued during the past year to the number of nearly or quite 75,000. Not far from 5,000 local unpaid agents are connected with the 1,000 Societies, who have aided in circulating these 75,000 volumes, and also in raising funds for the Cause. By so doing they have benefitted not only the Bibleless but promoted their own spiritual welfare.

The amount of funds raised from donations and sales of books, is about $46,000. Of this amount, nearly $38,000 has been remitted to the Parent Society at N. Y., and the remainder expended in carrying on operations in the State. Of the amount remitted, about $26,000 has been in payment for books, and the remainder (nearly $12,000) as donations to the A. B. S., to aid in supplying the destitute elsewhere.

In counties where the branch societies have been for some time in operation, and where annual efforts have been made, there have not been a large number found destitute of the Scriptures. But in some of the counties, where our system has been introduced for the first time during the past year, the destitution has been found to be truly appalling—amounting in certain districts to one-fourth or even one-third of all the families visited.

The State has recently been divided into 20 districts, embracing on an average 5 counties, with the design of having a permanent County Agent to each district, who shall go over all of the counties in his field once a year—attending the annual meetings of the branches, and assisting the local agents in raising funds and circulating the Scriptures. For several of these fields efficient agents have already been found, and others will be secured hereafter. Without some arrangement to have the societies visited and aided, most of them would cease to operate, or even to exist.

AMASA LORD,
State Agent, A. B. S.

THE NEW PENITENTIARY.—An adjourned meeting of the commissioners selected to decide upon the site and plan of the new Penitentiary for the State of Illinois, was held at the State House yesterday. A report by Messrs. Elwood, McMurtry and Bridges, on the subject, was submitted and discussed. The site agreed upon is about one half mile north-east of Jolliet, fronting sixty rods on the Illinois and Michigan Canal, and running back one hundred and sixty rods. It is said to combine excellent facilities for drainage, inexhaustible limestone quarries and running spring water. The cost of the tract is $100 per acre. Plans for the prison, prepared after great labor and personal inspection of the penitentiaries of the penitentiaries of Ohio, New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and other States, also exhibited by the company. The drawings were made by Messrs. Boyington & Wheelock, architects, of Chicago, and give one an idea of a prison as near perfect as it is possible to conceive. Of course, it is wholly impracticable for us to present even its main features. The plan proposes 800 sleeping cells, 88 separate cells, and 88 cells for females in a separate prison in the same yard. Owing to the absence of Governor Bissell, no action was taken on yesterday by the rest of the Board, though it is probable that the main features of the report will be adopted.—Springfield Journal 6th.

A SLAVE WHIPPED TO DEATH.—We have received information that a slave was chained with a long chain, on the 25th ult., in Pulaski county, Ky., by a Mr. Stigal, his owner, and whipped every morning daily, for six days, from fifty to one hundred stripes. On the morning of the seventh day he approached to complete the week's torture, but failed to enjoy that day's whipping. He found the poor tortured mortal dead.

The slave had asked permission of his master to go to see his wife on Saturday night, which request was denied him; but notwithstanding, the black man, after his work was done, and all were in bed, went to see his wife, but returned before daylight to make fires and to feed.

He was put into a box and buried; but the coroner, hearing of the outrage, had the body dug up and examined by three physicians who pronounced "death by whipping." Officers are in search of the inhuman murderer, but we presume nothing will be done with him if found.

Let the reader imagine that a negro has whipped a white man to death for going to see his wife at the end of his week's work, and that too at night when all were asleep, and see what will be his feelings.

White men are put to death for murder, black ones for love and true affection. O Slavery! The Devil will get you.—Newport (Ky.) News.

WOOD SUBMITS.—The hot blood of our nullifying Mayor begins to cool. In his communication to the Common Council last night he strikes his flag of rebellion, and, returning to the dominion of common sense, advises a quiet and orderly submission to the obnoxious laws until the competent legal authority of the State shall decide them to be unconstitutional.

There was no repudiation of the new charter yesterday in the Common Council. The Aldermen received a message from Mayor Wood, in which he talks very hard about nearly all the new city laws. He advises submission to all of the charter which is not unconstitutional, but very wisely declines to tell us which the objectionable sections are. Over the Police bill he is extremely indignant, and makes a formidable array of objections.

The board of Councilmen went quietly to work under the new charter, and made no objection until they received notice from the Corporation Counsel that they were to have no more pay. This was a bitter pill to some of the members, and they were not at all delicate in saying that the city might get along without their help, which it doubtless will be able to do. No business of importance was brought up.—N. Y. Tribune.

A VALUABLE SPIRIT.—A Mr. C. W. Cathcart writes to the Spiritual Telegraph, from Laporte county, Ind., detailing the following instance of power. He says:

"During the last harvest a wind blew off the straw hat of one of my hands. My attention was attracted to it, as, seated on my reaping-machine, I rounded the corner next to him.—The hat was forty rods off, and I should think nearly, if not quite 300 feet high. I called in a loud voice 'King' (the familiar name of our presiding spirit), bring that man his hat." The man instantly stopped still. The hat whirled around, came back and dropped precisely in his hands. He was so surprised that he did not shut his fingers upon it, when it fell to the ground on his feet; and he picked it up without moving an inch from his position, which he had held immovable from the time I called. The man was no Spiritualist. I called out without reflection, and can only say that I did not do so wantonly. This curious affair was witnessed by at least eight sedate witnesses, but few of whom were crazy Spiritualists."

ELOPEMENT EXTRAORDINARY.—The Enterprise, published at Macomb, in McDonough county, says that quite a hubbub was kicked up in that quiet little town, on Wednesday of last week, by the elopement of Mr. Wm. E. Owens with his wife's sister, Miss Julia Tungate. Mr. Owens was a horse and cattle dealer. The day before he left he borrowed all the money he possibly could from his acquaintances in town, promising to return it next day; in the evening he borrowed a buggy, and a span of horses from a friend, and, during the night, lifted the fair but frail Julia out of her bed-room window, placed her in the borrowed buggy, and drove off at the best speed of the borrowed horses. The guilty pair were followed, overtaken at Farmington, Iowa, and arrested at their room at a hotel where they had retired for the night. They were brought back to Macomb, the young lady was restored to her friends, and the gentleman (?) was committed to the county jail to await his trial—for stealing the horses and buggy.

THE FRUIT.—The lovers of fruit may rejoice in hope. The peach, cherry, pear and apple trees are full of fruit blossoms and buds. If not destroyed by a very late frost, the fruit will be abundant. In fact, the late spring will prove a great advantage, for it has kept back blossoms till they can expand with safety. The loss of fruit has generally been occasioned by late frosts near the first of May. But when the spring is unusually late, that evil is not likely to occur.

We observe through the country, that an unusual number of fruit trees, especially the peach and pear, have been set out. Many new vineyards are also planting, and we think, if the Lake cities do not make an exorbitant demand, we shall have hereafter a supply for this city. Fruit, like everything else, however, has increased rapidly in price.—Cincinnati Gazette, May 4th.

TICKET SWINDLING—THE NEW DODGE.—The ever-vigilant tribe of runners and ticket-swindlers, have been severely taxed, since the passage of the new law for the protection of emigrants, in what way to exercise their vocation without incurring the penalties of fine and imprisonment. The law prohibits the fraudulent sale of tickets of Railroad, Steamboat and Steamship Companies, but not of sailing vessels; and they have now hit upon the plan of sending California passengers by the way of Australia, in sailing vessels. This is done by naming a very high price for a California ticket, at the same time offering a passage by the way of Australia upon much better terms; by this dodge they expect to practice their impositions to any extent, and escape the penalties, [illegible] the law to include sailing vessels.—N. Y. Times.

MAIN STREET PROPERTY.—The sale of property on Main street, near Vine, yesterday, was attended by a large number of people. The lot [illegible] 24 feet, running back [illegible] hundred and sixty-two feet to a alley [illegible] sold [illegible] The [illegible] for $1,700 per front foot [illegible] $60,941. [illegible] Mr. P. A. Burland was the purchaser.—St. Louis Rep.

SAM SLICK IN SCOTLAND.—John Halliburton, alias Sam Slick, the famous clockmaker of famous saws, is now in Glasgow. He is the lion of the day there. He is entertained from morning to night by the nobility and gentry, and has made a speech, it appears on the British North American Colonies. The Glasgow Gazette says:

The Hon. Judge, in the course of a most interesting address, referred to the extensive resources contained in Newfoundland, Prince Edward's Island, Cape Breton, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, and Canada, as compared with the United States. He also referred to the unsatisfactory manner in which these colonies were governed, and predicted that unless a different system of policy was adopted, these colonies would soon fall from the body politic.

Notice.
THE PAST EIGHTEEN MONTHS' EXPERIENCE has given the citizens of Chicago ample proof that the soap process of cleansing gentlemen's clothes will not do, as practised by those inexperienced in the business. The fact of the matter is this, that, unless your coats, vests, and pants, are dyed, cleaned and neatly repaired, by men skilled in their vocation, they had far better never be touched at all; but when they are operated upon by experienced workmen, it is certainly a great saving to the community at large, at the same time conducing much to their bodily comfort. Now, gentlemen, all of you who know anything, know enough by this time to be fully convinced that the only true and reliable source of having your coats, vests and pants cleaned, neatly repaired, and made to look like new, is by COOK & McLAIN'S Chemical process. It certainly does remove every spot of grease, paint, tar, and tar, together with all other blemishes and impurities to which such garments are liable. The spots are warranted not to re-appear, as a beautiful finished lustre is put on as when first new.
Gentlemen, call at COOK & McLAIN'S and look at specimens of their Coat Dressing. If they fail to please you no charge will be made.
Remember, COOK & McLAIN, 88 Dearborn street, south of the Post-office. an10-'56-1y,1a

Of the Age.
MR. KENNEDY, OF ROXBURY, HAS discovered, in one of our common pasture weeds, a remedy that cures EVERY KIND OF HUMOR, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple.
He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases (both thunder humor). He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.
Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.
One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.
Two to three bottles will clear the system of Biles.
Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.
Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of Erysipelas.
One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the Eyes.
Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.
Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.
One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin.
Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Special Notices.

EXTENSION TILL 1ST MAY.—DR. CALVIN M. FITCH, Author of the Invalid's Guide and Consumptive's Manual, &c., &c., and his associate, JOHN W. SYKES, A.M., M. D., may be consulted daily (Sabbath excepted) till the first of May, at their rooms at the Sherman House, Chicago, Ill.

Office hours from 10 to 4 o'clock.

Consultation personally or by letter free.

As Drs. Fitch and Sykes will on no account both be absent at the same time, patients from a distance need fear no detention or delay.

HINTS TO INVALIDS—Or, Suggestions for the relief of Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Female Diseases, Dyspepsia, &c., by Drs. Fitch and Sykes, sent free of charge to any requesting it.

Dr. Fitch's Invalid's Guide and Consumptive Manual, &c., sent by mail to any part of the United States on receipt of 25 cents in postage stamps. Letters may be addressed either to Dr. Fitch or Dr. Sykes. mh13-e7S,tf

A Card to the Sick

FROM DR. S. S. FITCH, OF N. YORK, Author of "Six Lectures on the causes and cure of Consumption," and Founder of the system of Medical practice therein explained, by which Consumption, Asthma, Heart Diseases, and most Chronic Diseases are found to be perfectly curable.

Dr. S. S. FITCH desires to say to invalids that he continues his practice at his office, 714 Broadway, New York, where he may be consulted either personally or by letter.

Questions to be answered by invalids—Those who write will state name, age, occupation, post office and State.—Where born and lived? family complaints? strong or slender? color of hair, whiskers, eyes, complexion? height and girt, just above the hips? Any heart trouble, cough, expectoration, raised blood, sore throat, hoarseness, loss of voice, chills and fever, night sweats, asthma, humor, skin diseases, scrofula, spots, blotches or eruptions on the face, cancer, catarrh, rheumatism, bloating, palpitation, stoppage or fluttering of heart, disturbed sleep, dyspepsia, bad digestion, sour or sick stomach, wind, sinking feeling, biliousness, costiveness, diarrhœa, worms, piles, kidney troubles, weak back, pain anywhere? And all other particulars. If a lady, married? had children? female complaints, irregularity? Enclose stamp for reply, and prompt reply will be returned, giving all necessary instructions.

A personal interview with the patient is desirable; but if those at a distance find it inconvenient to visit New York for the purpose, treatment may be conducted successfully by letter, and remedies sent by express or otherwise to any part of the country.

Dr. S. S. Fitch's "Six Lectures" explaining his treatment, 360 pages, 30 engravings in muslin, sent by mail, post paid, on receipt of 40 cents.

Dr. S. S. FITCH is never absent from his own office in New York. al16-d&w-tf-e23

TO THE CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES.—CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—After several years experimenting in the manufacturing of Gin, I fortunately succeeded, in the year 1837, in making a discovery in its manufacture by which it was deprived of acrid and inflamatory properties, and rendered perfectly pure.

My manufactory is at Schiedam, Holland. After several months' reflection what title to give it, I introduced it to the American public under the name of "Wolfe's Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps." Schiedam is the name of the place in Holland where the Gin is manufactured. Aromatic derives its name from the Italian Juniper Berry with which it is flavored, and the word "Schnapps" is the German for drink—Cognac, Dram—Wolfe's Schiedam Aromatic Drink. No sooner had my Schnapps been introduced to the American public and received with approbation, than the liquor mixers of New York, Boston and Philadelphia, started in pursuit with their mixed and poisonous stuff under various names: Schiedam Gin, Schiedam Schnapps, London Club House Gin, London Cordial Gin, &c., and in several cases my labels have been so perfectly imitated, with only the addition of a few letters to plead a technical avoidance of the law, and so carefully prepared as to impose on careless purchasers. I understand a large quantity has been purchased by the merchants of the Eastern States on account of the cheapness of the articles, a merchant who participates indirectly in the fraud by selling the spurious articles, is as much an offender as the principal who planned the imposition.

I hope every respectable citizen who values the health of the community in which he lives will aid me in ferriting out and exposing the unscrupulous merchant, who, for the sake of a few cents, will put in jeopardy the lives of the community in which he lives. Such men should be nailed to the pillory for popular execration.

WOLFE'S SCHIEDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS

is made from Barley of the first quality, selected with great care from the products of the most celebrated grain-growing districts, is flavored with the essence of the aromatic Juniper Berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every acrid particle.

As a means of preventing and correcting the disagreeable and often dangerous effects produced upon the stomach and bowels by a change of water—a visitation to which travelers and settlers, and all unacclimated persons in the West, the South and South-west are peculiarly liable—the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps will be found absolutely infallible; while, in cases of dropsy, gravel, obstructions of the kidneys, diseases of the bladder, dyspepsia, and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession.

It is put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases of one dozen with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac-simile of his signature and label.

For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants. UDOLPHO WOLFE, 22 Beaver street, New York.

IMPORTANT TO FEMALES—DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS.—The combinations of ingredients in these Pills are the result of a long and extensive practice. They are mild in their operation, and certain in correcting all irregularities, painful menstruation, removing all obstructions, whether from cold or otherwise, headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, disturbed sleep, which always arise from interruptions of nature. They can be successfully used as a preventive. These pills should never be taken in pregnancy, as they would be sure to cause a miscarriage. Warranted purely vegetable, and free from anything injurious to life or health. Explicit directions, which should be read, accompany each box. Price $1. For sale by C. V. Clickener & Co., No. 81 Barclay street, New York; Penton, Fisher & Co., 94 Lake street; and Penton, & Robinson, 15 South Water street, Chicago. jy15-'56-1y

IMPORTANT TO CONSUMPTIVES.—Many valuable lives have been saved by Hegeman, Clark & Co.'s Genuine Cod Liver Oil, which, in all human probability would have been lost but for its timely use.

It is no quack medicine, but the Pure Oil, made with the utmost care from the Fresh Cod Fish Livers, and is recommended by the most eminent physicians in Europe and America, and has proved by ten years' experience, the most valuable remedy for Consumption and Scrofula ever discovered, for while it cures the disease, it increases the health and strength of the patient.

CAUTION.—There is a great deal of spurious oil, adulterated with Seal Oil, Whale Oil, &c., which, instead of benefitting, injures the patient, by deranging the digestive organs, but being cheaper, is by unprincipled persons palmed off for genuine.

Notice, that Hegeman, Clark & Co.'s signature is over the cork, and the Eagle and Mortar on the label; for, since the death of W. L. Rushton, our late partner, there has been an article called Rushton's put in the market, which is in no way connected with R. C. & Co., or H. C. & Co.; and thousands who had used other Oil without success, have been restored to health by the Genuine Oil of our manufacture.

Sold by J. H. Reed & Co., Penton & Robertson, Penton, Fisher & Co., Sears, Smith & Co., Sawyer, Paige & Co., Becker, Innes & Co., Ray & Baldwin, Gale Bros., F. Bryan, and by Druggists generally. mh17-d&w,477

$1,000—TASTELESS AND CONVENIENT.—BRADFORD'S Infallible Gum-Coated Pills, for the positive cure of diseases, where that nauseous stuff, Copaiva, is generally used. The proprietor of these Pills will forfeit the One Thousand Dollars if they fail to make a cure, and hopes the be may be instrumental in curing thousands of unfortunates of diseases for which the usual remedies (which are often ineffective) are nauseous, and certain to accomplish the exposure of the Patient. The Infallible Gum-Coated Pills are without smell—cannot be detected as a specific for secret diseases, as they look like any ordinary Pill, and may be carried in the vest pocket, and safely taken anywhere. They can be swallowed without the slightest inconvenience, having no taste and producing nothing like sickness of the stomach. No other remedy of like nature possesses such advantages, nor will they cure so surely and so speedily as the Infallible Gum-Coated Pills.

Price $1 per box, or 6 boxes $5. Sold by FAHNESTOCK & DAVIS, 100 Randolph street.

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY.—SIR JAMES CLARKE'S celebrated Female Pills. Protected by Royal Letters Patent.—Prepared from a prescription of Sir James Clarke, M.D., Physician Extraordinary to the Queen. This invaluable Medicine is unfailing in the cure of all those painful and dangerous diseases incident to the female constitution. It moderates all excess, removes all obstructions, and brings on the monthly period with regularity. These Pills should not be taken by females during the first three months of pregnancy, as they are sure to bring on Miscarriage, but at any other time they are safe.

In all cases of Nervous and Spinal Affections, pain in the Back and Limbs, Heaviness, Fatigue on Slight Exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Lowness of Spirits, Hysterics, Sick Headache, Whites and all the painful diseases occasioned by a disordered system, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed, and although a powerful remedy, do not contain iron, calomel, antimony, or any other mineral.

For sale by all Druggists in Chicago.

CRISTADORO'S HAIR DYE.—This great chemical discovery has taken precedence over every other preparation for changing the color of the Hair. The public have realized by experience the important fact, that while it imparts the most perfect and natural black or brown, it does not impair the softness and elasticity or arrest the growth of the hair. Free from all caustic ingredients, it neither stains the skin of the head, dries up the moisture circulating through the fibres, nor emits any unpleasant odor. Its application is given and finished in ten minutes, in any weather, and the rich uniform hue imparted to the hair of the head, the whiskers and moustaches is uniform to a shade in every instance. Hence its popularity, and the wonderful rapidity with which it has superseded other dyes, throughout the United States.

Price, small size $1.00

HAIR DYE—HAIR DYE—HAIR DYE.—W. A. BATCHELOR'S HAIR DYE.—Gray, red or rusty hair dyed instantly to a beautiful and natural Brown or Black, without the least injury to hair or skin.

FIFTEEN MEDALS AND DIPLOMAS have been awarded to Wm. A. Batchelor since 1839, and over 80,000 applications have been made to the hair of his patrons of his famous Dye. Prejudice against dyeing the Hair and Whiskers is as unjust as it would be against covering a bald head with a wig.

WM. A. BATCHELOR'S HAIR DYE produces a color not to be distinguished from nature, and is warranted not to injure in the least, however long it may be continued. [illegible] of private rooms at the wig factory, 233 Broadway, N. Y.

Sold in all cities and towns of the United States, by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

The genuine has the name and address upon a steel plate engraving on four sides of each bottle, of WILLIAM A. BATCHELOR, 233 Broadway, New York.

TREMPEALEAU, (Wis.) May 5, 1857.

EDITORS TRIBUNE:—An opportunity has been afforded me in a brief absence from Chicago to send you some notes from this point. The route from Chicago is by way of the Galena R. R. to Dunleith, and thence up the Mississippi river by the boats of the Galena, Dunleith and Minnesota Packet Co. Your correspondent came up on the Northern Light, a new and elegant boat which then made her first trip. She was built in Cincinnati and reached Dunleith in time to take the passengers from Chicago on the train of Thursday last. She is officered by Capt. P. Lodwick, whose reputation is that of the most efficient and courteous Captain on the Upper Mississippi. The cabin is furnished in a style fit for a gentleman's drawing room. On examining the quarters of the deck passengers, I found what seemed to me worthy of attention, that more comforts and conveniences in the way of berths and cooking arrangements are provided for this class than on any other line of boats I have ever seen. This is but just. There is no reason why deck passengers should be made as uncomfortable as possible, simply because they pay a lower rate of fare. Humanity dictates that they should be decently accommodated, and their comfort consulted as much as is consistent with the other arrangements of the boat. The Northern Light brought up 350 cabin passengers, besides thirty-four children, and one hundred or more deck passengers. The great mass are bound for Minnesota, who disembark at St. Paul, Winona and other towns, on their way to the interior. A few years ago California received an avalanche of emigration. Last year it was precipitated on Iowa, and this year on Kansas and Minnesota. Next year it may tend strongly to Nebraska, and then turn upon the unoccupied lands of Illinois and Wisconsin. The tendencies of emigration westward, in the several years, its causes and results, are a topic which deserves an important place in American history.

On Friday last, (May 1st,) the first boat for the season made its way through Lake Pepin to St. Paul. This is some ten days or a fortnight later than the usual time for the breaking up of the ice so as to admit navigation. Twenty-five boats had been lying at the foot of the lake with passengers and freight waiting to ascend. Three had been sunk in the ice, the Courier, the Arula, and the Falls City, the last named being a total wreck. The boats are now descending in frequent succession, six having passed this point to-day. The main interest of Mississippi towns is found in the passing and repassing of the steamboats, five or six of which on the average, sometimes a dozen or more ascend or descend the river in a single day.

The Town is located in the southern part of the County bearing the same name. The County is forty miles long and eighteen wide. It is made up of prairie land interspersed with bluffs. The land has excellent capacity for tillage, and is rather above the average quality in Western Wisconsin. It is well watered by the Trempealeau, Black and Buffalo Rivers, and by Creeks, as the Tamarac, Beaver and Pigeon. Its population is about 2,000. They are made up in a large proportion of New England people, and their political views are indicated from the fact that at the recent Judicial Election, Chief Justice Whiton received all but two votes in the county. At the last Presidential Election, the Republican ticket received nearly four to one. In the three northern townships, which constitute the organized town of Sumner, (named after the distinguished Senator,) the vote was unanimously Republican. Only one third or one half of the land in the county had been entered on last June, when the rest was taken out of market to allow the selections for railroads. Has not Congress been far too prodigal in grants to Railroad Companies? Has it not given far more land to them than was sufficient to afford ample encouragement? If the Government held the public lands for purposes of revenue only, such appropriation might be defended on the ground that the improvement doubled the value of the reserved alternate sections. But our Government does not hold the public lands merely for purposes of revenue. They are a sacred trust confided to it for the benefit of the whole people. Such a domain no Nation of ancient or modern times has ever had. It should be sacredly administered, so as to provide cheap homes for the present and future surplus millions of the older States. This cannot be done if the short sighted policy of the few last Congresses is to be followed, by which the monopoly of this domain is given to great corporations and speculators. There is good reason, also, to believe, that the issue of bounty land warrants was brought about by speculators and Congressional borers, as a scheme by which they might get possession of those rich and broad lands which justice and patriotism demanded should be reserved for homes for actual settlers.

The population of this village, which is called Montoville on some maps, is three hundred, having increased to that number from seventy-five, which was the population last summer. It lies about 180 miles below St. Paul. The prairie approaches the river at this point. The difficulty of finding good town sites on the higher Mississippi, is that the bluffs lie close to the river, not allowing space enough for the town, and render access to the back country very difficult. The special advantage of Trempealeau is in this respect. The bluffs are here thrown back about five miles, and between these and the river is enclosed a tract of twenty thousand acres. The bluffs come to the river on the northern side of the town, and one which overlooks it is 527 feet high, from the top of which LaCrosse, which is twenty-two miles south, and Winona, which is fifteen miles north, may both be seen with the naked eye. On the opposite side of the Mississippi, high bluffs approach the river. The population of the town is largely made up of natives of Vermont and Western Pennsylvania. Mine host, the landlord of the Vermont House, is a graduate of the Vermont University. Samuel D. Hastings, Esq., recently of LaCrosse, is a leading proprietor of the town, and has the general charge of its interests. He was the Republican candidate for Secretary of State, a year ago. His popular qualities, high personal character, and long devotion to the cause, will in all probability secure for him a re-nomination.

The severity of the last winter here occasioned much inconvenience. This locality is not exempt from the fever and ague, which afflicts all new western towns. I noticed several fires on the prairies and on the high bluffs, which in the evening had a picturesque aspect. They are set on fire sometimes by boys, for sport, or by farmers who seem to think it improves the crop of grass; and they are sometimes caught from the Indian camps which are found on the opposite side of the river, in Minnesota. They are ruinous to the timber, either destroying it or stunting its growth. After one of these fires has run over the timber land, the wood is unfit for timber, and much depreciated for purposes of fuel. Sufficient care does not seem to be taken to prevent their spread. Indians, in small parties of two or three or half a dozen, occasionally visit the town, from the Minnesota side. They are principally of the Winnebago tribe, a portion of which still lingers in this region. They are inoffensive in their habits. They have, however, no sense of the meum and tuum, and are addicted to thieving. They require watching in stores, lest they should carry away unpurchased articles under their blankets, and they do not scruple to sell a canoe by day, and steal it back in the night. They cling to their own language, and will not speak English even when able, except when they are excited by anger. They cling to their filthy habits with as much tenacity as to their language, and obstinately resist the civilization which is offered them on all sides.

To-day an old Indian and his squaw came to this town in a canoe hewn out of a piece of timber, to exchange his moccasins for powder and shot, a pipe and tobacco. The squaw, as usual among Indians, paddled the canoe and bore the burdens. After all the sentimentalism in poetry and prose which has been written about "the poor Indian," we seek in vain to comprehend the problem of his race. Belonging to the human family, he has all the rights of a man and may assert the obligations which Christianity imposes in the treatment of him by a stronger race. But when the last Indian shall have disappeared, it will be difficult to determine what contribution he has made to human progress. Unlike all other races, Caucasian, Asiatic or African, he wilts under the genial rays of the civilization, by which they are developed into nobler forms of humanity.

Already, clergymen of three different denominations officiate in the village. Last Sunday the Congregationalist minister delivered a discourse on Baptism in reply to a discourse delivered on the previous Sabbath by the Baptist minister, on the same subject, and in the same school house. So soon do men divide into hostile religious parties and revive ancient controversies. This fact shows that sectarianism is not the mere result of circumstances over which our generation has no control. If every religious organization were to be swept from the earth, and Christians were to organize anew, they would divide into just as many sects as they have now, and contend over rituals and non-essential articles of creed as under the present system. P.

Two Scotch gentlemen went to Ireland to make a tour, and to see the natives. One of them, one drizzly day, bet the other the price of their dinner and a bottle of wine, that the first Pat they found would be [illegible]. A diminutive fellow, with an old frieze coat and a piece of a hat, was lying [illegible] under the shelter of a row of [illegible]. "Pat, [illegible] said our friend. "Yes, yer honor," he replied. "If the devil were to come just now which of us three would he take?" "Sure he'd take me, yer honor," "And why, Pat?" "Oh! he's mighty sure [illegible]."

GROSS LIBEL.—Mr. Louis C. Ott, of New York, has been arrested on the complaint of James B. Murphy, for the publication of a gross libel in the shape of a handbill, and for writing scurrilous letters addressed to the complainant and his wife. The following is a copy of the handbill:

"ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD.

Any person who can bring proof that Mrs. Sophia Murphy (late Sophia Mills, wife of Mr. James, journeyman saddler, boarding at No. 46 East Broadway, and sister of A. F. Mills, plumber, has paid for her Wedding Dress and Under Garments! will receive the above reward, by calling at Louis C. Ott, No. 127 Ninth Avenue."

On being questioned why he had been guilty of so grave an offense, the accused replied that he did it for the purpose of obtaining a settlement of the amount which he alledged the complainants were indebted to him, and that he had succeded in getting one debt by a similar course. He was committed in default of $2,000 bail.

A TERRIBLE JOKE AND BLUNDER.—The workmen in a planing milll at Newport, Kentucky last week, tied a rope around the neck of one of their number who was drunk and noisy. By some means the end of the rope caught on the shaft which was in motion. The poor fellow, now sobered by fear, shrieked terribly as he found himself dragged towards the machinery, and felt the rope tightening around his neck. One of the hands sprung forward with a knife, and severed the rope, but, in his frightened haste, did it so blunderingly that he cut the unfortunate fellow's throat, inflicting a deep gash, from which the blood flowed abundantly. The wound, fortunately was not fatal.

PROSPECTS OF THE WHEAT.—The Landing (Mich.) Journal says:—"We have taken some pains to inquire of individuals from various parts of the county as to the prospects of the growing wheat. When the snow went off in February, the wheat never looked better at that time of year. Since that time we have had much bad weather for that grain—freezing and thawing, which, by heaving the roots out of the ground, has done much damage. It is past that danger now, and the weather of the last week has very much improved its appearance. From present indications it will not be much short of an average crop."

The marble banking house of Cook & Sargent, at Davenport, will, it is said, be the finest building of the kind in the State. Its cost will be $50,000.

Good Medicines.

IT IS ESTIMATED THAT AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL and CATHARTIC PILLS have done more to promote the public health, than any other one cause. There can be no question that the Cherry Pectoral has by its thousands on thousands cures of Colds, Coughs, Asthma, Croup, Influenza, Bronchitis, &c., very much reduced the proportion of deaths from Consumptive Diseases in this country. The Pills are as good as the Pectoral, and will cure more complaints.

Everybody needs more or less purging. Purge the blood from its impurities. Purge the bowels, Liver and the whole visceral system from obstructions. Purge out the diseases which fasten on the body to work its decay. But for diseases we should die only of old age. Take antidotes early, and thrust it from the system, before it is yet too strong to yield.

Ayer's Pills do thrust out disease, not only when it is weak but when it has taken a strong hold. Read the astounding statements of those who have been cured by them from dreadful Scrofula, Dropsy, Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Internal Pains, Bilious Complaints, Heartburn, Headache, Gout, and many less dangerous but still threatening ailments, such as Pimples on the Face, Worms, Nervous Irritability, Loss of Appetite, Irregularities, Dizziness in the Head, Colds, Fevers, Dysentery, and indeed every variety of complaints for which a Purgative Remedy is required.

These are no random statements, but are authenticated by your own neighbors and your own physicians.

Try them once, and you will never be without them.

Price 25 cents per box—5 boxes for $1.

Great Annual Land Sale for 1857,
AT CHICAGO, ILLINOIS,
BY
SIMEON DOWNING & Co.,
REAL ESTATE AGENTS
And Land Registry Office,
NO. 8 SOUTH CLARK STREET CHICAGO.
COMMENCING MONDAY THE 25TH OF May, and Continuing for two weeks.
Having completed our arrangements for conducting an extensive Real Estate and Land sale, at Public Auction, we shall commence it on the 25th May, and continue, daily, from Mondays until Saturdays for two weeks.
This sale will comprise the largest list of valuable Real Estate ever before offered at any one sale in the Western country, consisting of new and valuable improved business and residence property in the city of Chicago, as also a large list of choice, unimproved lots and plats of ground in the city and suburbs—property which must rapidly increase in value, and prove profitable for the investment of capital.
Also, SEVERAL HUNDRED THOUSAND ACRES of Choice Farming Lands, of the best selections, located in various sections of the States of Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa, and Territories of Minnesota and Kansas—Comprising large bodies of the richest agricultural lands to be found in the United States. Lands selected by competent surveyors, duly entered, and Government titles obtained. Ample descriptions of each separate piece of property, and proper abstracts of titles will be furnished, and land sold in lots to suit purchasers from 40 acres up to 640 in a body, but mostly in quarter section (160 acre) lots.
Also, A LARGE NUMBER OF FINELY IMPROVED FARMS, varying in size from 40 to 1,000 acres each, with fine improvements—buildings, orchards, &c. A number of them in Cook and the adjoining counties, near the city of Chicago.
BARGAINS MAY BE HAD—As several fine bodies of land, and also a number of Farms will be sold for all cash in hand, but most of the Lots, Lands and Farms, on easy terms of payment—say from one-fourth to one third cash, and the balance in annual instalments.
We also have on private sale a large list of city property, Western lands and Farms, which we can sell at great bargains, and on easy terms of payment.
Parties having city property, lands or farms in the West for sale, either at private sale, or which they wish included in our Annual Sale, will please send to our address, or hand in a description of it as early as possible.

Lumbering Establishment for Sale.
SITUATED IN SAGINAW CO., MICHIGAN, on the Kaw-Kawlin River, which empties into the Saginaw Bay, two miles from the mouth of Saginaw River. At this point a dock is erected to receive all the lumber manufactured at the establishment and conveniently shipped from thence to any port on the Lakes. The mills are situated about 5 miles [illegible] dock, on the Kaw-Kawlin River, consisting of one Water Mill, and one Steam Mill containing five saws capable of manufacturing from five to six million feet of lumber during the season, together with the usual apparatus for manufacturing Lath, Pickets, &c., to work up the waste material. [illegible] acres of land attached, which are located on each side of the River. These lands occupy some eighteen miles on said River and there is no section of that which touches the river. A majority of the lands are covered with heavy Pine timber; the balance with hard-wood timber, being good farming land when cleared, with about two hundred acres cultivated lands. The premises are well provided with frame tenements for hands, work shop for repairs, with barns and other out-houses, with grist mill for grinding feed and other conveniences necessary for the business, all in first rate condition for immediate use. Terms—one-third down, balance in one, two, three and four years with interest at seven per cent, secured on the property. In addition to the above, the following property may be had at a fair valuation, two large scows for moving the lumber, twelve yoke of oxen, two span of horses, wagons, sleighs, harness, &c.; also about twenty thousand logs in the boom will be sold and the lumber taken at the market value of each. Thus a profitable business can be entered into at once. The only object in disposing of this property is to lessen the multiplicity of our business.
For further particulars apply to H. L. L. Jillett of Chicago, Ill., or to James Frazer, at Bay City, Mich., near the premises.
Chicago, April 18th, 1857. FRAZER & JILLETT.

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE.
3000 ACRES SELECTED PINE Lands in Waupacca, Oconto and Shawano counties, Wisconsin. The above lands are on the Wolf river and its main tributary, the Embarrass; also contiguous to the contemplated line of the Chicago, St. Paul & Fond du Lac Railroad.
1200 ACRES SUPERIOR HARDWOOD TIMBER LAND, selected, in Richland county, 15 miles from the line of the Milwaukee & Mississippi Railroad, in a thickly settled neighborhood, one mile from the romantic village of Rockbridge, in which are Grist Mills, Saw Mills, Stores, &c. Pine river in the eastern boundary of one section.
120 ACRES OF BEAUTIFULLY SITUATED "Oak Openings," 2 miles due east of and overlooking the lovely City of Madison, the capital of Wisconsin. Five acres only under improvement, on which stands an ordinary Frame House, Well, &c. There are 2500 cords of wood standing on the above premises, which when cut and delivered in Madison will be worth $3 50 per cord.
The above Lands will be sold for Cash or exchanged for a complete Stock of Dry Goods, Groceries or Hardware, on application by letter or otherwise to the subscriber, at Madison, Wisconsin. All communications strictly confidential.

Government Land Warrant
LOCATING AGENCY.
WILL LOCATE LAND WARRANTS IN States of Iowa, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Kansas. Having had many years experience in locating Lands in the Western country enables them to make good selections that will give satisfaction to those who may want lands located this spring in Iowa, when the Land Offices will open in Fort Dodge, Osage and Sioux City Districts.
Also, choice Improved Farms—and 20,000 acres well selected lands in Illinois for sale on reasonable terms.
Warrants bought and sold.
DORSETT & REED,
Home Office, No. 47 LaSalle street, Chicago.

60,000 Acres of Valuable Lands for Sale!
THE UNDERSIGNED HAS 60,000 ACRES of very choice farming lands for sale, in the North-Western part of Illinois; all of which lie in the very best portions of the State, and are among the most valuable lands in the State for agricultural purposes, being accommodated with both Railroad and navigable water facilities, and well supplied with most excellent timber, good water, beautiful stone, both lime and free, which is easily worked, and almost all of which lands are underlaid with Stone Coal, which is very accessible.
To such as wish such property, I can say that they need not fear going into the wilderness to find these lands, as they lie in a region of country well inhabited by intelligent, enterprising people, with churches and school privileges.
I will sell those lands on such terms that no one should object. The title, I will have ample abstracts of, so that no fears need be entertained on that account. There is perhaps no other list of lands of the same amount in Illinois, that comprises the many advantages of these lands. There are some of them as remote from either Railroad or navigable rivers, but that a farmer could leave his farm and go to either railroad or water town and back with a wagon, in the same day. For richness of soil and picturesque beauty of the country, it is unsurpassed.
The country is as healthy as any region of the United States, as the inhabitants' faces plainly show.
I have also a large number of city lots in Fulton City, Dixon, and a few in Cairo for sale. Fulton City has grown, in the last four years, from a population of about 100 to at present about 2,000. There is also a [illegible] from Fulton to St. Paul, which will add much to the business that grows very much.
A particular description of each quarter section of land will be furnished to persons wishing to purchase, which will enable them to go directly to such tracts as may suit their respective tastes.
My office is in the Dement House, Fulton City, Illinois, the terminus of the Air Line Railroad.
CHAS. DEMENT.

TRUSTEES' SALE.

DEFAULT HAVING BEEN MADE IN the payment of two promissory notes made and executed by Joseph Kemp, both bearing date the 16th day of April, A. D., 1856—One for the sum of three thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight dollars and eighty-four cents, payable two years after date, and the other for eight hundred and ninety-five dollars and seventy-three cents, payable two years after date, at the request of the holders of said promissory notes, and in pursuance of the power and authority vested in me by a certain deed of trust executed by the said Joseph Kemp and Harriet Kemp, his wife, to the undersigned, bearing date the 16th day of April, A. D. 1856, to secure the payment of said promissory notes, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Cook County, State of Illinois, in Book 87 of Deeds, page 562, the undersigned, Trustee, will set up and expose at public sale, to the highest and best bidder for cash, at the north front door of the Court House in Chicago, at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon, on Saturday, the ninth day of May next, all the right, title and interest of said Joseph Kemp and Harriet Kemp, his wife, in and to the following described lots and parcels of ground, situated and lying in the City of Chicago, County and State aforesaid, to wit: Lots six (6), eight (8) and seven (7) in subdivision of lot one (1), block forty-five (45), in Canal Trustee's subdivision of Section twenty-one (21), Township thirty-nine (39) north, Range fourteen (14) east, as located on the plat of the City of Chicago, being the lots formerly conveyed by —— Hooper to the said Joseph Kemp; also, all the following described premises situate and lying and being in the County of Cook and State of Illinois, to wit: Lots ten (10), eleven (11) twelve (12) and thirteen (13) in B. Kaylor's subdivision of the south half of block forty-six (46), Canal Section twenty-one (21), Township thirty-nine (39), Range fourteen (14) as located upon Joseph Kemp's subdivision of lots ten (10), eleven (11), twelve (12), thirteen (13), fourteen (14), fifteen (15), sixteen (16) and seventeen (17) of said south half of block forty-six (46) in said B. Kaylor's subdivision, recorded in Book eighty-five of Maps, in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court for said Cook County—being the same lots sold to the said Joseph Kemp by B. Kaylor. The said above described property (or such part thereof as may be necessary to raise the amount due upon said promissory notes, and the expenses incident to said sale), will be sold at the time and place above specified.

JUST PUBLISHED,

THE UNFORTUNATE'S GUIDE, GIVING directions where to obtain Medical aid, and containing astounding facts and thrilling and interesting information never before in print. By Doctor WM. THOMSON. Price twelve cents. Upon the receipt of four postage stamps, the book shall be forwarded free from observation, to any address in the United States or Canadas. As it contains important private information for both sexes; the author received, through the Post Office during the last month from various parts of the country and city, over three thousand orders, for as many copies, evidently in the hand writing of females, but fictitiously signed, for the purpose of preserving their incognito. It is no "catch penny," but abounds in startling and interesting truths, extracted from the author's diary and case books, the result of thirty year's practice in all climates, in the treatment of diseases of the sexual organs, which gave him better opportunities than those possessed by the Roman Catholic Confessor, to look behind the curtain.

Address Dr. Wm. Thomson, Box 17, Chicago, Illinois.

Doctor Thomson's Office and Consulting Rooms, 59 Lake street, Chicago, Ill., where every species of Private Disease is treated upon principles founded on the solid basis of science and sound philosophy. Those afflicted with Spermatorrhea (seminal emissions), or any private disease, before applying to any physician for medical assistance, should obtain a copy of the Unfortunate's Guide, and thus be enabled to escape the disastrous consequences of quackery.

Chicago, June 6, 1856.-1y.

DR. HUBBELL'S

MEDICAL INFIRMARY,

69 RANDOLPH STREET, 69

Opposite the Revere Hotel.

TO YOUNG MEN AND OTHERS.—NERVOUS Debility and Chronic Diseases, the first and direct consequence of excess and abuse of the animal system, is a peculiar diseased condition of the seminal organs, which is produced by masturbation. The following disorders, some in one case, some in another, are again the direct consequence of this disease, viz: Seminal Emissions, General Debility and Nervousness, Distaste for Society, Gloomy Presentiments, pain and weakness in the back, impairment of mental vigor and memory, weak and watery eyes, eruptions on the face and body, restlessness or vicious dreams and unrefreshing sleep, unfitness for marriage relation, improper excitability of the organs, stricture, costiveness, piles, dyspepsia, &c.

To the truth of this, more or less in each case, every sufferer from solitary indulgence can attest. And further, any latent or family predisposition to disease, as scrofula, consumption, apoplexy, rheumatism, epilepsy, imbecility, impotence, insanity &c., is almost surely eventually developed into activity, and is actually the most frequent cause of these maladies in young persons, as proved by the statistics of all countries. And this is equally true of the sexes. But if taken in time this disease and its consequences is perfectly amenable to treatment.

Dr. Hubbell has for many years past been consulted upon so many and distressing cases of this vice, that his attention has been necessarily much directed to its treatment and cure, and he is happy to add has, beyond his most sanguine expectations, matured a treatment at once safe and certain, and free from painful operations or nauseous medicines.

Think and reflect upon the fact, that an inexperienced physician is worse than none at all, and that it requires constant attention to private diseases to acquire a competent knowledge of their treatment. It is far better to go at once to those who understand the disease in all its minutia.

Having been long established in this city, he can appeal to all for a certificate of success, which should have great weight with the inexperienced.

Persons living at a distance, by giving a plain statement of their cases, will be attended to punctually, and medicine forwarded by express to all parts of the United States.

Lake and Canal Navigation.

NEW OSWEGO LINE.

WESTERN MERCHANTS AND FORWARDERS of Property and Merchandise to and from the West and North-west, are respectfully notified that the proprietor of the above line has effected such arrangements as will enable him to offer superior inducements to shippers of every description of Merchandise and Freight from New York to all ports on Lake Ontario and the Upper Lakes, with all the dispatch and at as advantageous rates as any other line.

Upon the resumption of navigation, a line of A 1 Lake Boats, of the largest class, will be put on to transport freight from New York to Oswego without transhipment, and there connect with propellers and sail vessels on the Lakes. No property will be warehoused till it has reached its destination, as a vessel will always be in readiness at Oswego, so that freight may be transferred directly from the canal boats on their arrival.

The Proprietor will at all times endeavor to attain the quickest possible dispatch, and parties who have heretofore had their goods stowed away for weeks in a warehouse or depot in transitu, will find that such unwarrantable delays will be entirely avoided by the

NEW OSWEGO LINE.

All Freight intended to go forward by Propeller should be marked "STEAM."
